

1 is to be granted. A few of them spell it out in detail.

2 I therefore urge you to vote against this
3 amendment and while nobody wants it more than I do, a
4 sparse Constitution, nevertheless there are certain corners
5 we don't want to skip and there are certain areas where
6 we want to recognize basic principles. I think this is
7 one of them.

8 I would urge you to defeat this amendment to
9 eliminate all reference to this failure to be able to sue
10 the sovereign state.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to
12 speak in favor of the amendment?

13 Delegate Bamberger.

14 DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Will delegate Kiefer yield
15 to a question?

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Kiefer, do you yield to 17 a question?

18 DELEGATE KIEFER: Yes, sir.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bamberger.

20 DELEGATE BAMBERGER: Do you intend to offer your
21 amendment D as a substitute for Section 7?
